DEDICATION

"FAVA KID"

On December 14, 1992, John Fava, a great friend and classmate, was taken from us due to a tragic car accident.

It didn't take long for all of us at the High School to realize how much we should cherish and take full advantage of life, which is exactly what John did.

Whatever free time he had, he spent playing football and baseball, not only for the high school, but also for recreation. He was the starting full-back for the Greenwave with hopes of continuing his career in college. He was the starting right-fielder for the State Champion All-Star Baseball Team during the summer of 1991. Whether John was on or off the field, he always gave 110%.

Football was his passion, but there was nothing he loved more than his family. They proved to us that even in the worst of times, they could pull together to help comfort the students and classmates at the high school, despite their own problems. His family consists of his father Al, his mother Patricia, his sisters Chrissy and Lisa his brothers Peter and Al, and his niece Lauren, and his nephew Robby.

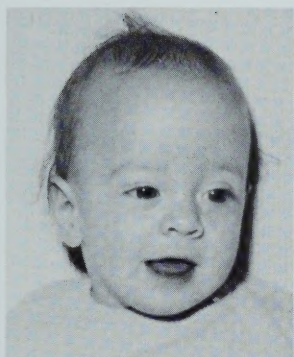

We remember John best for his quiet caring manner, his enthusiasm, and his positive attitude. He was everyone's best friend.

We will always remember hearing "Johnny Fava, on the carry" at all the football games, and always seeing the Miami Dolphins fan walking around the halls. He was so proud of his jacket, shirt, pants, and hat, and we were proud of him too.

We miss him so much and John probably misses us also.

"Our John will be with us always,
though not on earth we know,
but in his heavenly presence,
as he prays for us below"

1995 Remember When List

*We all had cooties.
People pegged their pants.
Bomb scares weren't a daily occurrence.
Seniors didn't get arrested every weekend.
Dan Burke wore pants.
Freshmen were scared of the upperclassmen.
Office detention was optional.
Tattoos were only for bikers.
Kelly Murphy dressed normal.
Seniors got respect.
Smoking wasn't "cool".
Everybody wanted a Cabbage Patch Kid.
Jim Archy had a pulse.
Freshmen weren't on the third floor in the morning.
We thought weed was dandelions.
Mrs. Dowling didn't park on the sidewalk.
We were allowed to have walkman's in school.
Brian Monroe took a joke.
Freshmen knew to walk on the right side of the halls.
The bathrooms were locked.
The bathrooms were unlocked.
The bathroom was set on fire.
The bathrooms were locked.
Mr. Corcoran didn't forget things.
We didn't know the soccer field was contaminated.
Anthony DiFonso was understandable.
We actually did homework.
Boys chased girls at recess.
Senior boys didn't date sophomore girls.
Mrs. Baylor talked nonstop.
Mr Byron lost his temper.
We didn't have to be to school on time.
Girls wore their hair ten feet high.
We had school dances.
We had the "Sweet Sixteen" parties.
Everyone wore wraparound pants.
We could sleep later in the morning.
School was fun.
Senior year seemed far away.*

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

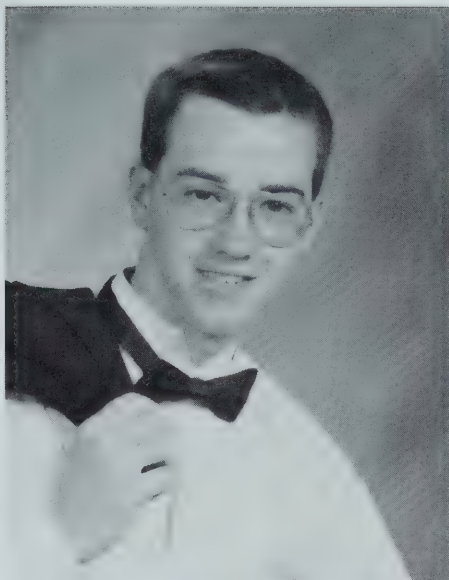

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

1 Baseball fans express outrage as players and owners argue over salary caps. The players strike and no World Series is played for first time in 90 years.

2 Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis dies and is buried next to her husband, President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, in Arlington National Cemetery.

3 Tipper Gore, wife of U.S. Vice President Al Gore, visits refugee camps in Zaire where thousands die from cholera after fleeing Rwandan conflict.

4 Drought, lightning and 50 mph winds create wildfires that claim the lives of 14 firefighters in Colorado. Thousands of acres are lost to the firestorm.

5 Boyz II Men, the kings of Motown, repeat their earlier success with II, a huge second album that shoots straight to the top of the R&B charts.
